Secretary.

THE PUNJAB STATE AID TO INDUSTRIES ACT, 1935

(PUNJAB ACT NO. V OF 1935)

An Act to encourage the development of Industries in Punjab by the grant of State aid.

Preamble.—Whereas it is expedient further to improve and regulate the giving of State aid for industrial purposes;

And whereas the previous sanction of the Governor General required under sub-section(3) of section 80-A of the Government of India Act and the previous sanction of the Governor required under section 80-C of the said Act have been obtained;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and Commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Punjab State Aid to Industries Act, 1935, as modified and applied to the Union Territory of Himachal Pradesh.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Union Territory of Himachal Pradesh.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context:—

(1) “Board” means the Board of Industries constituted under section 3 of this Act;

(2) “Borrower” means an individual, company or association or body of individuals, whether incorporated or not, to whom or to which State aid has been granted under this Act;

(3) “Company” means a company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956 (I of 1956);

(4) “Director” means the Director of Industries, Himachal Pradesh;

(5) “Industry” means any industrial business or enterprise conducted or undertaken either by an individual or by a company, association or body of individuals whether incorporated or not;

(6) “Cottage Industry” means any industry carried on by a worker in his home and includes dairy farming, bee-keeping, lac-making and keeping a poultry farm;

(7) “Village Industry” means any industry which forms the normal occupation, whether whole-time or part-time, or any class of the rural population of the State;

(8) “Machinery” includes plant, apparatus, tools and other appliances required for the purpose of carrying on any industrial operation, or process;

(9) “Prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(10) “State” means the Union Territory of Himachal Pradesh;

(11) “State Government” means the Lieutenant Governor of Himachal Pradesh.

CHAPTER II

3. Establishment of a Board of Industries.—(1) For carrying out the purposes of this Act, the State Government shall, as soon as possible, after the commencement of this Act, establish a Board to be called "the Board of Industries" consisting of the following members, namely:—

- (a) the Secretary, Department of Industries, Himachal Pradesh;
- (b) the Director;
- (c) three members to be appointed by the State Government, one of whom shall be a non-official member representing cottage and small-scale industries of Himachal Pradesh;
- (d) three members to be elected by the Territorial Council of Himachal Pradesh from amongst members of the Council, election being in accordance with the principle of proportional representation by means of the single transferable vote:

Provided that the Board shall have power to invite for consultation on any particular question before it, not more than three persons specially qualified to advise on the matter in question or having special knowledge of local conditions in the area where the industry in question is situate. Any person so invited by the Board shall not have the right to vote.

(2) The Secretary, Department of Industries, Himachal Pradesh, shall be ex-officio Chairman and the Director shall be ex-officio Secretary of the Board.

(3) Four members of the Board shall form a quorum.

4. Procedure in default of election of members.—If by such date as may be fixed by the State Government, the Territorial Council of Himachal Pradesh does not elect any member to be elected by it under the provisions of clause (d) of section 3, the State Government shall appoint a member of that Council to be a member of the Board, as if he had been duly elected under that clause.

5. Vice-Chairman.—The Board may from time to time elect, for such period as it thinks fit, one of its members to be Vice-Chairman.

6. Elections and Appointments to be notified in Official Gazette.—The names of the Vice-Chairman and of the appointed and elected members of the Board shall be published by the Government in the Official Gazette.

7. Terms of Office.—(1) The Vice-Chairman or any other appointed or elected member may resign his office by giving notice in writing to the Chairman.

(2) (a) Subject to the provisions of this Act an appointed member shall hold office for five years unless the State Government otherwise directs; and an elected member shall hold office for five years or until such time as he ceases to be a member of the body electing him, whichever is shorter;

(b) An outgoing member may, if otherwise qualified, be re-elected or re-appointed.

(3) Notwithstanding the expiration of the term mentioned in sub-section (2) an appointed or elected member shall continue to hold office until the vacancy caused by the expiration of the said term has been filled; provided that no vacancy shall be allowed to remain unfilled for more than six months.

8. Removal of members.—(1) The State Government may, by Notification, remove the Vice-Chairman or any member of a Board if he—

- (a) refuses to act or becomes incapable of acting as a member of the Board;
- (b) is declared insolvent;
- (c) is convicted of any such offence or is subjected by a criminal Court to any such order as in the opinion of the State Government implies a defect of character which unfit him to continue to be a Vice-Chairman or member of the Board; provided that before the State Government notified the removal of a member under this sub-section, the reason for his proposed removal shall be communicated to the member concerned and he shall be given an opportunity of tendering an explanation in writing;

(d) without excuse, sufficient in the opinion of the State Government, is absent, without the consent of the Board, from more than four consecutive meetings of the Board.

(2) The State Government may fix a period during which any person so removed under clause (b) or (c) of sub-section (1) of this section shall not be eligible for re-appointment or re-election.

9. Casual vacancies.—When the place of any member of the Board becomes vacant by his removal, resignation or death, a new member shall be appointed by the State Government:

Provided that if the place of any member elected by the Territorial Council of Himachal Pradesh becomes vacant, the State Government shall appoint another member of that Council in his place:

Provided further that any person so appointed under this section shall be subject to retirement at the same time as if he had become a member of the Board on the day on which the member of the Board in whose place he is appointed was last appointed a member of the Board:

Provided further that no act of the Board or of its officers shall be decided to be invalid by reason only that the number of members of the Board at the time of the performance of such act was less than the number provided by section 3.

10. Allowances and Fees.—The members of the Board and the members of Committees, which may be appointed by the Board, when necessary, shall be paid travelling allowances of the prescribed amount and on the prescribed conditions for attending meetings of the Board, or for performing any duty assigned to them by the Board for the purposes of this Act.

11. President at meetings.—(1) The Chairman or in his absence the Vice-Chairman shall preside at every meeting of the Board, and shall have a second or casting vote in all cases of equality of votes.

(2) In the absence of both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman the members present at any meeting may elect one of the member to preside, who shall have a second or casting vote in all cases of equality of votes.

12. Interested members to vote.—No member of the Board shall vote on any question coming before the Board for consideration in which (otherwise than in its general application to all persons and properties within the State) he has a pecuniary interest.

Explanation.—In case of any question arising whether a member has or has not a pecuniary interest, the decision of the Chairman shall be final.

13. Power of Board to make regulations.—(1) The Board may make regulations consistent with this Act and the rules thereunder for the carrying of all or any of its purposes.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the Board may make regulations regulating or determining all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (i) the time and place of its meetings;
- (ii) the manner in which notice of meetings shall be given;
- (iii) the conduct of proceedings at meetings;
- (iv) the division of duties among the members of the Board; and
- (v) the appointment, duties and procedure of special Committees consisting wholly of members of the Board or partly of such members and partly of other persons.

14. Supersession of Board.—(1) If at any time it appears to the State Government that the Board is not properly performing the duties imposed upon it by or under this Act, the State Government may, after considering any explanation offered by the Board, by an order in writing specifying the reasons for so doing, dissolve the Board and direct that the vacancies, shall thereupon be filled by election in respect of elected members and by appointment in respect of appointed members in the manner indicated above.

(2) From the date of an order sub-section (1) until the vacancies are filled, all powers and duties of the Board shall be exercised and performed by such person in such manner as the State Government may direct.

15. Duty of Board.—It shall be the duty of the Board:—

(a) to report to the State Government, after such enquiry, if any, as it deems necessary or as may be required by this Act, on applications for State aid that may be referred to it for advice by the State Government;

(b) to advise the State Government on any matter that may be referred to it:

Provided that the State Government shall not sanction State aid without reference to the Board except in the case of a loan the amount of which does not exceed Rs. 5,000.

16. Documents and Reports to be furnished to the State Government.—If the State Government so directs, the Secretary shall forward to the State Government any document and prepare and submit any report relating to the work of the Board.

CHAPTER III

GENERAL PROVISIONS REGARDING THE GIVING OF STATE AID

17. Forms of State Aid.—The forms of State aid which may be given may include the following, namely:—

- (a) the grant of a loan;
- (b) the grant, sale or lease of land, raw-material, fire-wood, water or any other property vested in Government for the purposes of the State;
- (c) the payment of a subsidy, in the case of a cottage industry or village industry for any purpose; and in the case of any other industry for the conduct of research or the purchase of machinery;
- (d) the supply of machinery on the hire-purchase system;
- (e) the guarantee of a minimum return on the whole or part of the capital of a joint stock company invested in an industry.

18. Industries to which several Forms of State Aid may be given.—State aid may be given to:—

- (a) a new or nascent industry;
- (b) an industry to be newly established in an area where such industries are undeveloped;
- (c) a cottage industry, or village industry; or
- (d) an industry which needs revival or development by modern methods.

19. Application for State Aid.—Applications for State aid shall be made to the Director in such form, and shall contain such information as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER IV

PROVISIONS REGULATING THE GIVING OF STATE AID OTHERWISE THAN BY THE SUPPLY OF MACHINERY ON THE HIRE-PURCHASE SYSTEM

20. Power to grant loans.—Loans granted under this Chapter shall be subject to the sanction of the State Government given after consultation with the Finance Department; provided that in regard to loans not exceeding a prescribed amount, the State Government may make rules delegating their powers to such authority or officer as they deem fit.

21. Security for repayment.—(1) When an application for a loan has been accepted, the applicant shall execute a deed in the prescribed form undertaking to apply the money lent to the purpose or purposes for which and to fulfil the conditions on which the loan was granted, and rendering himself and such property as may have been specified in the deed as security, and in the event of that property being found insufficient, the whole of his liability for the repayment of the loan in the same manner as if the loan had been granted to an individual.

22. Loan how repayable.—The loan together with all interest due thereon, if any, shall be repayable either in a lump sum or by installments as may be provided for in the deed executed by the borrower under section 21.

23. Notice to Pay.—(1) When any loan or installment or interest thereon falls due and is not paid on or before the due date or when a loan has been declared immediately repayable under section 27, the officer empowered by the State Government in this behalf may cause to be served on the borrower, a notice in the prescribed manner calling upon him to pay the sums due within such time as may be fixed therein.

(2) Such notice shall contain an intimation that in case of default the said officer will issue a declaration in a prescribed form showing the amount of the debt due and the property mentioned in the deed as liable to satisfy the same.

24. Effect of declaration.—(1) If within the time so fixed the sums due are not paid, the officer empowered under section 23 may issue the declaration as described in sub section (2) of the same section, and such declaration shall be published in the Official Gazette.

(2) Such declaration shall be conclusive evidence of its contents, and shall not be called into question in any Court by the borrower, his heirs, legal representatives or assigns or by any member of his family if he belongs to a joint Hindu family nor shall any right, principle or rule arising from or under the personal or customary law applicable to the said persons or any of them, affect the validity or effectiveness of a mortgage executed or of a declaration published under this Act, or the procedure therein provided for enforcement thereof.

(3) Such declaration may be produced by the said officer, or by such other persons as he may either generally or specially appoint in this behalf before the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any of the property liable for the debt due is situate in the same manner as a decree of which execution is sought.

25. Execution of declaration.—When declaration has been received by a Civil Court under section 24, the Court shall immediately attach the property mentioned in the declaration and shall pass an order directing that, unless the amount mentioned in the declaration is paid within such time, not exceeding two months, as the Court may consider reasonable, it may be recovered by sale of the property mentioned in the declaration as if it were a decree for the payment of money passed by the said Court in the exercise of its ordinary civil jurisdiction.

26. Inspection and returns.—In any case in which an application for a loan has been made under this Chapter the applicant, and at any time during the currency of a loan that has been granted the borrower, shall be bound:—

- (a) to comply with any general or special order of the Director relating to the inspection of the premises, buildings, machinery and stock in hand of the industry;
- (b) to permit the inspection of all accounts relating to the industry;
- (c) to furnish full returns of all products manufactured or sold both as regards description and quantity;
- (d) to maintain such special accounts and to furnish such statements as the Director may from time to time require; and
- (e) to submit the accounts of the industry to such audit as the Director may prescribe.

27. Penalty for default in applying the loan.—If the Director, after any inspection provided for in section 26, is not satisfied that the money lent is being applied to the purpose or purposes for which the loan was granted or that the conditions on which the loan was granted are being duly fulfilled, he may declare, notwithstanding anything contained in the deed executed under section 21 that the loan is immediately repayable and shall give notice of such declaration to the borrower.

28. Power to adjust security during current of loan.—If at any time during the currency of the loan, the value of the security falls below the outstanding balance of the loan, the Director may either proceed to recover in the manner laid down in sections 23, 24 and 25 so much of such balance as is not adequately covered by the then existing value of the security or accept such additional or collateral security as he may deem sufficient.

29. Power to recover loans.—If the borrower fails to comply with any order under clause (a) of section 26 or does not permit or obstructs the inspection of the accounts relative to the industry or makes default in respect of any of the particulars specified in clauses (c), (d) and (e) of the said section, or if the borrower disposes of any profits in contravention of the provisions of section 33, the Director may, after considering any representation the borrower may make within such time as the State Government may allow in this behalf proceed to recover the loan in the manner laid down in sections 23, 24 and 25.

30. Appeal.—Within 15 days of the receipt of a notice under sections 27, 28 or 29 the borrower may appeal against such order to the Local Government and the decision of the State Government thereon shall be final.

31. Government guarantee of a minimum return.—The conditions of a guarantee by the State Government of a minimum return on the whole or part of the capital of a joint stock company shall be:—

- (a) that the industry shall be subject to the conditions of section 26 in respect of inspection, returns and accounts;
- (b) that a minimum portion of the authorized capital of the industry to be fixed according to the circumstances of each case has been subscribed and paid in cash;
- (c) that no such guarantee shall in any case extend beyond a period of 5 years;
- (d) that during the period to which the guarantee extends, the State Government may impose on such persons as it considers to be directly concerned in the promotion of the company, a condition that if they transfer any of their shares without the consent of the State Government, they shall be liable jointly and severally to refund to the State Government any sums paid to the company in fulfilment of the guarantee;
- (e) that the State Government shall be entitled to recover the whole or any part of the sum paid by the State Government on account of such guarantee with interest at the rate in force on the date of the agreement for loans granted under the Land Improvement loans Act, 1883, at any time after such period as may have been laid down in the agreement; provided that the State Government is satisfied that the company is paying or is able to pay interest or a dividend upon the capital shown as paid up in excess of such rate as may be fixed in the agreement and such recovery shall be made in the manner laid down in sections 23, 24 and 25:

Provided that the sum recoverable by the State Government in any one year shall not exceed a sum equal to half the net profits made by the company in the preceding year in excess of the sum required for the payment of interest or dividend at the rate fixed in the agreement.

32. Subsidy.—A subsidy to a cottage industry or a village industry for any purpose and a subsidy to any other industry for the conduct of research or for purchase of machinery may be granted by the State Government on such conditions as may be prescribed in this behalf.

33. Disposal of profits when conditions on which State aid is given are not fulfilled.—No borrower shall pay any dividend or distribute or take any profits in excess of such percentage rate upon the amount of the capital of the industry as the State Government may from time to time fix, until the conditions on which the State aid has been granted are fulfilled.

34. Government control of aided Industry.—Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Chapter, the State Government may by the appointment of its own Directors or otherwise, exercise such control over the conduct of the industry to which State aid has been given as shall suffice in its opinion to safeguard its interests; provided that such right has been expressly reserved by agreement at the time the aid was granted.

35. Method of recovery of money due.—Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 23, 24 and 25, all arrears of money payable to the State Government under this Act including interests chargeable thereon and costs, if any, incurred may with the previous sanction of the State Government be recovered as arrears of land revenue.

CHAPTER V

SUPPLY OF MACHINERY ON HIRE-PURCHASE SYSTEM

36. Percentages of cost to be deposited by hirer.—No machinery shall be supplied by the State Government on the hire-purchase system unless the applicant therefor deposits with the Director such percentage of the cost thereof as may be prescribed, and furnished security for the unpaid portion of such cost in the same manner as for a loan granted under the provisions of Chapter IV.

37. Particulars to be specified in order when application is allowed.—When an application is allowed, the Director shall subject to and in accordance with any rules that may be made under this Act, make an order specifying the following particulars, namely:—

- (a) the amount of each installment of rent to be paid for the hire of the machinery and the number of such installments to be paid before the machinery shall become the property of the hirer;
- (b) the amount of interest, if any, to be paid with each installment of rent on the remaining unpaid installments;
- (c) the dates on which and the manner in which the aforesaid payments shall be made; and
- (d) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

38. Conditions of supply of Machinery on hire-purchase system.—Until the hiring is terminated in the manner hereinafter provided, the following provisions shall apply, namely:—

- (a) the hirer shall pay punctually and without demand the installments of rent and amount of interest specified in the order referred to in section 37;
- (b) the hirer shall retain the machinery in his own possession in good and serviceable order and condition and shall not, without the previous written consent of the Director, make any addition thereto or alteration therein, nor remove the machinery or any part thereof from the premises specified in the application for the supply thereof;
- (c) the machinery shall remain the sole and absolute property of the State Government and any transfer thereof or assignment of any right, title or interest therein or the creation of any mortgage, encumbrance or any other charge thereon by the hirer shall be void as against the State Government unless it has been made with the previous written consent of the Director;
- (d) the machinery shall not be liable to distraint, attachment or sale by any process under any law for the time being in force, otherwise than under this Act;
- (e) the machinery shall bear a metal plate in the prescribed form, and any person who wilfully removes or defaces such plate shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees. It shall be presumed until the contrary is proved that machinery bearing such metal plate is the property of the Government hired out under this Chapter;
- (f) the hirer shall permit the Director or any person authorized by the Director in this behalf to inspect the machinery at all reasonable times, and the Director, or such other person shall have all such powers of entry as may be necessary for the purpose of making an inspection;

(g) in addition to the foregoing conditions the hirer shall be bound by such other conditions consistent therewith as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act, or may be imposed by the Director in any particular case.

39. Consequence of default by hirer.—If the hirer makes default in paying the rent of the machinery or any sum payable as interest or any other charges due from him under this Chapter or fails to comply with any of the conditions which are contained in or may be imposed under section 38, the Director may, after giving him 16 days notice, terminate the hiring and he or any other officer authorized by him in this behalf may thereupon enter the premises in which the machinery is for the time being kept, whether such premises belong to the hirer or not and seize and take away the same.

40. Option of hirer to purchase Machinery seized for default.—(1) If the machinery is seized and taken away under section 39 the hirer shall have the option to be exercised within one month after such a seizure or such longer period as may be allowed by the Director in this behalf, of purchasing the same by payment to the Director of the unpaid balance of the cost thereof, together with such other amount as may be due, and the cost of and expenses incidental to such seizures and removal.

(2) If within the period specified in sub-section (1), the hirer does not exercise the option of purchase, the Director shall proceed to dispose of the machinery.

41. If the Director terminates the hiring under section 39, and the hirer does not purchase the machinery under section 40, the hirer shall not be entitled to the refund of the sum deposited by him under section 36 or to the refund or remission of any payment made by or due from him during the hiring, and shall be liable to pay such amount, if any, as the Director may determine in respect of any loss caused by the disposal of the machinery under sub-section (2) of section 40.

42. When, after credit has been given for the amount deposited, under section 36, the hirer has paid in full all the installments of rent mentioned in clause (a) of section 37 and the amount of interest, costs and other charges payable by him under this Chapter, he shall become the owner of the machinery and shall thereupon remove from the same the metal plates mentioned in clause (e) of section 38:

Provided that if at any time during the hiring the hirer pays in advance the remaining installments of rent the interest payable in respect thereof shall be remitted.

43. Penalty for non-removal of metal plate from Machinery.—If the hirer wilfully omits, after receiving due notice, to remove the metal plate from any machinery which has become his property under section 42, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

44. Sums due under this recoverable chapter as loans under Chapter IV.—All sums payable under this Chapter shall be recoverable in the same way as loans under Chapter IV.

CHAPTER VI SUPPLEMENTAL

45. Finality of decision of State Government and bar of suit and proceedings in Civil and Criminal Courts.—

(1) The decision of the State Government as to whether the conditions laid down in or under any of the provisions of this Act have been satisfied shall be final, and no suit shall be brought in any Civil Court to set aside or modify any order made thereunder.

(2) No prosecution, suit or other proceeding shall lie against any Government officer or other authority vested with powers under this Act for anything in good faith done or intended to be done thereunder.

46. Power to make rules.—(1) The State Government may, after previous publication, make rules consistent with this Act for the carrying out of all or any of its purposes.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the State Government may make rules regulating or determining all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) regulating the travelling allowance under section 10;
- (b) the manner of making application for State aid under section 19;
- (c) the delegation of power to give loans under section 20;
- (d) the form of deed to be executed under section 21;
- (e) the nature and amount of the security to be taken under sections 21 and 36 for the due application and repayment of the State aid or rents together with all interest due thereon, if any, and the rate of interest at which and the conditions under which State aid may be granted:

Provided that where the security consists wholly or in part of the premises, machinery, stock, stores or other property, present or future, movable or immovable of the industry concerned, then the whole of such property present and future, movable and immovable, may be made liable for the recovery of the loan and all interest due thereon, if any;

- (f) the inspection under section 26 of the premises, buildings, machinery and stock-in-hand and the mode of keeping and auditing the account and of furnishing returns of any industry in respect of which State aid has been given;
- (g) the manner in and the place at which notices or orders may be served on any borrower;
- (h) the form of the declaration to be used under section 24;
- (i) the fixing of the period for the repayment of loans;
- (j) the application under section 33 of profits in the case in which the conditions on which State aid has been given, have not been fulfilled;
- (k) the appointment and functions of Directors appointed by the State Government under section 34 and the prescribing of other methods of control of industries to which State aid has been given;
- (l) the percentage of the cost of machinery to be deposited under section 37;
- (m) the additional particulars to be specified in the order referred to in section 37 and the conditions on which machinery may be supplied on the hire-purchase system;
- (n) the form of the metal plate referred to in clause (e) of section 38;
- (o) the form of notice under section 39;
- (p) the recovery of any sums payable under this Act; and
- (q) all other matters pertaining to the working of this Act.

S. NARAYANSWAMY,

Simla-4, the 7th June, 1958

No. W-27-102/58.—Whereas one State Home and two District Shelters have been started in Himachal Pradesh to provide protection to the rescued women etc. in this Pradesh under Social and Moral Hygiene and After-Care Services programme;

And whereas Managing Committees for the above institutions have since been constituted;

The following Bye-laws and other instructions regarding working and other day to day activities of the above institutions approved by the Lieutenant Governor are hereby notified for the information of all concerned:

1. Categories of People who require to be provided under the After-Care Programme—

- (1) Rescued women;
- (2) Women in moral danger;
- (3) Unattached women;
- (4) Wayward girls;
- (5) Persons discharged from several types of institutions both Care (Orphanages and Women's Homes) and Custodial (Jails, reformatories, borstels and certified schools etc.); and
- (6) Those needing after-care after a long period of hospitalisation.

2. Bye-laws for the working of Managing Committees—

- (i) Any member who wishes to resign should in his resignation to the Chairman of the Committee who may refer it to the Administration for necessary action.
- (ii) The Managing Committee may recommend the removal of any member for failure to attend three consecutive meetings, or for other sufficient reasons. The recommendation should be made to the Administration, who will consult the Central Social Welfare Board in regard to their nominees on the Managing Committee before taking a decision.
- (iii) The Committee should meet at least once in two months. Additional meetings can be called either by the Chairman or at the request of one-third of the number of members.
- (iv) The quorum for a meeting will be one-third of the number of members.
- (v) The Managing Committee can form one or more Sub-committees for carrying out some of the functions, e. g., in determining the individuals to be admitted to a Home or a Shelter. It may also assign specific duties and functions to different non-official members carrying on correspondence and discussions with various voluntary agencies, welfare workers and the public, as also with departments of the Administration.
- (vi) The Managing Committee will prepare and adopt the revised budget estimates for each financial year and budget estimates for the next financial year. These estimates will be submitted to the Administration by the 15th August each year, or such other dates as the Administration may prescribe.
- (vii) One of the official members of the Committee so designated by the Administration will be the Treasurer of the Committee.

- (ix) Within the policy of admissions prescribed by the Managing Committee, the Secretary may make emergency admissions, but will immediately seek the approval of the Sub-committee appointed for the purpose.
- (x) The Managing Committee will generally look after the affairs of the Home/Shelter, and for this purpose it will be open to any member to visit the Home or Shelter and interview the inmates at any time.

3. Duties of the Assistant Superintendent of District Shelter:-

- (i) The Assistant Superintendent at the District Shelter will acquaint himself/herself with the persons who may be needing after-care, by contacts with the institutions in the district or districts, and particularly with the Welfare and Probation Officer who may be attached to the institutions. The cases of all persons seeking help directly at the Shelter will also be considered by him/her. In respect of each such person unless the information is received from the institution, the Assistant Superintendent shall record the name, previous history, family background and all other particulars that may be obtained from such persons. Each person will also be medically examined immediately on arrival.
- (ii) It will be Assistant Superintendent's duty to verify the information obtained and as far as possible in consultation with the person to plan for his/her rehabilitation.
- (iii) He/She will as far as possible, restore such a person to his own family or help her in finding employment, accommodation, etc., of which she may be in need. Those who cannot be dealt with in this way, may be referred to the appropriate After-Care Home.
- (iv) Where an applicant at the Shelter happens to be a woman accompanied by children, it will be his/her duty to take steps to put the children above the age of six years in an appropriate institution before admitting the mother to the State Home/Shelter. These arrangements for the children should be completed within a month.
- (v) He/She will be generally responsible to the Managing Committee for the supervision of all work including purchase, accounts, maintenance of records, discipline etc. and also in discharge of the correspondence with the District Shelter, Administration etc.
- (vi) He/She will look after the daily well-being and health of the inmates, cleanliness, and distribution of meals and clothing.
- (vii) All admissions will be made by the Managing Committee or a Sub-committee thereof; provided that the Assistant Superintendent may make admission in an emergency and immediately obtain the approval of the Managing Committee or the Sub-committee.

4. Records to be maintained at the District Shelter—

- (1) Admission and Discharge Register;
- (2) Attendance register (for inmates and for staff);
- (3) Property Register of inmates;
- (4) Registers of Stores, Dead Stocks, etc.;
- (5) Cash Book, Ledger, Salary Book, Purchase Register and other Accounts Register, Service Books etc.;
- (6) Remarks Book and Visitors' Book;
- (7) Minutes Book of the meetings of the Managing Committee;
- (8) Correspondence with the State Home institutions etc.

The following individual records should also be kept:—

- (1) History Files;
- (2) Health Record;
- (3) Record of discussions and action taken with respect to each placement and follow-up.

5. State Homes—

Each State Home will have a Superintendent. When there are more than 50 inmates, an Assistant Superintendent can be added. The Superintendent should have adequate experience in a related field, preferably in Social Work.

6. Duties of the Superintendent of the State Home.—

- (i) To be generally responsible to the Managing Committee for the supervision of all work including purchase, accounts, maintenance of records, discipline etc. and also in charge of the correspondence with the District Shelter, Administration etc.

- (ii) To work as the Secretary of the Managing Committee for the Home, as also for the production units.
- (iii) To maintain public relations conducive to the implementation of the programme.
- (iv) To undertake investigation and classification of persons referred to the District Shelter in those cases, and otherwise where there is no District Shelter, to arrange for the investigation, medical examination and classification of the inmates.
- (v) To look after the daily well-being and health of the inmates, cleanliness and distribution of meals and clothing.
- (vi) When the State Home has a Superintendent and an Assistant Superintendent, the Managing Committee will divide the duties suitably between them.

7. Records to be maintained in the State Home.—

- (1) General Admission and Discharge Register;
- (2) Attendance Register for the Residents;
- (3) Property Register for the Residents;
- (4) General Register for Dead Stock;
- (5) General Register for Stores;

- (12) Correspondence with the District Shelter, Voluntary Agencies etc.;
- (13) Correspondence related to predischarge work;
- (14) Waiting list for Admission;
- (15) Register of charges recovered from earning residents.

Records of Individual Residents —

- (i) History sheets as received from other institutions on admission;
- (ii) Health records;
- (iii) Educational and vocational performance records;
- (iv) Reports of general performance in the Hostel;
- (v) Records relating to the earnings of the residents.
- (vi) Records relating to the steps taken in the rehabilitation of the residents;
- (vii) Family contact records;
- (viii) Placement records;
- (ix) Follow-up records.

8. Daily routine and discipline etc. both in the Home and Shelter—

Each Managing Committee should draw up a simple programme and a method for maintaining and watching discipline inside Home. In doing so the following points are to be kept in view:—

- (1) The difference in the needs of mental and social adjustment of various inmates.
- (2) The need for some community recreation and social education during the leisure hours.
- (3) All inmates should do their own room cleaning and do their own cooking in batches and help in keeping the premises clean. They should also wash their own clothes. Self help in all these matters should be promoted and paid staff for this purpose abolished as far as possible.

- (4) Organisation of other vocational training, for those who may not be suitable for work in the production units.
 (5) To organise leisure-time activities.

The inmates should be encouraged to take an active interest in institution and such parts of the activity as may be conducted by them, may be left to their own initiative; for example, organising variety entertainments, dramas, settling the daily menu; settling petty disputes and quarrels through their own committees etc., etc.

9. Diet—

The Managing Committee will draw up a suitable schedule of diet, clothing and bedding for the inmates, taking into account the seasonal, regional and local conditions and customs, within the limits of expenditure for each of the items in the letters of sanction issued from time to time. The schedule of diet should provide a minimum of 2,500 calories for women, and 2,400 calories for adolescents.

As far as possible, in organising medical, educational and recreational facilities, Community Services will be utilised.

The Managing Committee will recover from inmates at the following rates as Administration may approve from time to time:—

- (i) those earning between Rs. 25/- and Rs. 50/- shall contribute one-third of their earnings; and
- (ii) those earning more than Rs. 50/- shall contribute two-thirds of their earnings.

10. Discharge and follow-up—

The Home should endeavour to complete the work of rehabilitation for normal inmates in about a year, though there may be cases, particularly those requiring psychological adjustment, who may require a longer period. During this period, the habit of saving should be encouraged by providing the necessary facilities.

The Home should also endeavour to follow-up for a time, all persons discharged in order to prevent relapses.

By order,

A. B. MALIK, I. A. S.,
Secretary.
